

City of Taylor Mill
CAUCUS MEETING
Wednesday, September 24, 2025

CALL TO ORDER & WELCOME:

City Attorney Jack Gatlin noted that the Caucus Meeting is an informal gathering and was advertised, aligning with the guidelines for an Open Meeting. Present at the meeting were Commissioner Caroline Braden, Commissioner Rose Merritt, Commissioner Dan Murray, and City Attorney Jack Gatlin. Absent were Mayor Daniel L. Bell, Commissioner Mark Kreimborg, and CAO Brian Haney.

Commissioner Merritt stepped out of the room between 10:18 and 10:20 a.m.

DISCUSSIONS:

The Commission, led by Commissioner Braden, engaged in discussions about the 70th Anniversary Celebration.

It was agreed that hosting one quality band rather than multiple acts would draw a larger crowd and enhance attendance.

The event will emphasize a patriotic theme.

A KidZone will be included to provide families with enjoyable activities, followed by a band performance and fireworks. The undetermined band should tentatively be scheduled to play from 6:30 p.m. and 8:30 p.m., but will be subject to the sunset time.

At the suggestion of City Attorney Jack Gatlin, the Commission will consider creating a Vendor/Sponsor package detailing what the city will offer vendors in exchange for their sponsorship (e.g., web advertisements, physical banners, permitted booths at the event, etc).

In the upcoming Commission Meeting, the Commissioners will aim to establish a budget to determine the maximum amount the Commission is prepared to allocate for the event, including the estimated projection of city personnel costs.

ADJOURNMENT:

There being no further business to discuss, the meeting concluded at 10:32 a.m.
